FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

West Whiteland Township Supervisor Appointed to Townships Over 10,000 Population Committee of PSATS

Rajesh Kumbhardare, a supervisor for West Whiteland Township in Chester County, has been appointed by Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors (PSATS) President A.J. Boni, of Perry Township in Fayette County, to a three-year term on the Townships Over 10,000 Population Committee of PSATS.

The nine-member Townships Over 10,000 Population Committee identifies common problems and needs unique to these townships, proposes solutions through state and federal legislation and administrative initiatives, and facilitates the exchange of information through discussion, training, and technical assistance.

The Pennsylvania State Association of Township Supervisors represents Pennsylvania's 1,454 townships of the second class and is committed to preserving and strengthening township government and securing greater visibility and involvement for townships in the state and federal political arenas. Townships of the second class cover 95% of Pennsylvania's land mass and represent more residents — 5.7 million — than any other type of political subdivision in the commonwealth.
